New Business:

There will be no meet in July, but there will be a sale at Country Quilts & Bears. There will be a sit & sew on August 20. September there will be a veteran's project.

A Nominating Committee was formed with Sharon Kalinowski, Denise Appleman and Diane Penney heading the hunt for a new Secretary and Treasurer. They will present the slate of officers at the September meeting.

A thank you letter was read from the Quilts of Valor and given to the Historian for filing.

Reports of Standing Committees:

Programs/Education – Lynda Weingart

October 22 a class by Ellen Osten will be held. Cost is $50.00 with a $66.83 kit included. See Lynda Weingart to sign up.

Program for tonight was What's Your Bag. Several ladies showed their favorite bags that they had made. It was very enjoyable and everyone voted for the one they liked best. Possible programs in the fall will be making one of the bags shown.

Community Outreach – Gail Pittman

Pre-made bundles were distributed for those wishing to make quilts. Also donations of items were requested to make baskets to give to veterans. These items are due in September. Goal is to make 10 baskets.

Retreat – Cathy Starman/Lynda Weingart and the Six Pack Group

Date of retreat is March 30 – April 2, 2017 at Day Springs in Parrish, FL. Cost is $290.00 for Thursday-Sunday and $200.00 for Friday-Sunday. Payments will be divided by three and will start in September for the first payment of $75.00. Watch the newsletter for more details.

Newsletter – Janis McGee

There will be no newsletter in July. Watch for the newsletter in August.

There were no reports for the following committees:

Membership, Sunshine, Brown Bag Challenge, Quilt Show 2017 and Opportunity Quilt.

Lynda Weingart announced that the May party raised $530.00.

Show and Tell was held with several beautiful items shown.

A motion to adjourn was made by Elaine Rice and seconded by Sharon Kalinowski at 7:58 p.m.
