

Procrastinating Quilters Meeting Minutes

November 16, 2017

Cindy Cosick was welcomed as our guest.

We welcomed Norma back after being gone for 5 years. She is excited to be back with her quilting friends.

The Christmas Stocking Pattern was given out again for those who missed our welcome "Getting to Know You" last month. Members were notified to bring the stocking back to the Christmas Party in December with a $5.00 notion inside.

We have 5 party blocks left to sell. They are $1.50 each and only the applique gingerbread man is left. If all the blocks come back we will have 5 quilts.

Mystery Quilt was introduced. Three color designs were shown as samples of the useable colors. Karen O'Malley, Judy Leshivsky and SueAnn Suderman guided us through the first part of the project; the buying and cutting of the fabric. Everyone who signed up got a fabric sheet with directions. It was also recommended that everyone mark their pieces or keep them in plastic baggies.

June Sanchez will be hosting the Brown Bag Challenge. Everyone who participated in the challenge from the past years was asked to bring those projects in for show and tell. They will be hung on the design wall and the tables. The first Brown Bag Challenge was in 2001 and consisted of three fat quarters. Later years saw the quilts become larger and ultimately size restrictions were initiated.

Charity quilts were discussed and explained for new people.

There was no New Business

Show and Tell...Always fun! Boutique towels and 1950's trailer pot holders were shown in addition to several lovely quilts.

A 50/50 drawing was held with $33.00 in prizes distributed.
