

Procrastinating Quilters Guild

October 18, 2018

Business Meeting

President, Lori Lewis, welcomed all our members to this month's meeting. Lori called on Teri Roberts to introduce our guests; Ella, who lives in the complex and knows Karen Pieczonka and also David who is Margaret Van Haintze's husband.

Pam Sprague, Vice-President, had no report for tonight but a Happy Birthday wish for our President, Lori Lewis. We sang Happy Birthday to her.

Karen Pieczonka, Treasurer gave a report on the different activities for the previous month. If you were not present, be sure to read the report in our Guild Folder that is present at the meeting.

SueAnn Suderman, Secretary, minutes are on the web site for anyone interested in last month's activities. The election of officers was the highlight of the evening.

Gale Pittman, Community Outreach, gave a report on Cloths to Kids project and mentioned the pictures in the newsletter. They have it set up like a store. They are north of County Quilts and Bears. Gale suggested we keep on doing what we are doing. Lori reminded us to always remember they take new socks and underwear not used for the kids.

Retreat 2019, Janet Jensen and Diane Friedman reminded us there is still time to sign up and come to retreat. Get the details for the retreat in the Newsletter on line.

Teri Roberts, Membership Chairwoman said we had 41 members present tonight. Lori let us know that Pamela Hoscheit is moving away from our area. Pamela was our dog bed coordinator. We wish her well.

Lori Lewis gave us all a cute stitchery as a holiday gift, only a treat not a trick, to make as we wish.

Sharon Kalinowski, Quilt Show, said that her committee hasn't met since our last meeting but they were meeting soon. If we have anything for her to pass on, please let her know. She said it's time to sign up for the show and for times to work. There are plenty of opportunities to help. You are expected to work for 4 hours. This can be done in 2 hour increments. Only a few sitting positions are available so sign up quick if you need to sit. It's also time to start signing up to enter your quilts. Denise and Paula will be coordinating the baskets from our Guild. Each guild donates 10 baskets.

The meeting was adjourned with 50/50 drawing, won by SueAnn Suderman and show and tell by our members.

Respectfully submitted by SueAnn Suderman
